GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY, November 21, 1871.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 10 A. M., President Trammel in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Wright.

The roll was called and the journal read and approved.

A bill to relieve parties plaintiff in certain cases from the operation of an act to extend the lien of set-off and recoupment to all debts contracted before June 1st, 1865, and to forbid the collection of the same until all legal taxes due thereon shall have been paid, being the special order of the day, was then taken up.

The Judiciary Committee reported as a substitute a bill to repeal said act to extend the lien of set off, etc.

Mr. Nichols moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

Carried by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Anderson, Black, Brock, Bruton, Burnes, Campbell, Clark, Colman, Crane, Crayton, Deveaux, Griffin, Heard, Hoyle, Kirkland, Kibbee, Lester, Nichols, Nunnally, Simmons, Smith—21.

Nays—Messrs. Brown, Cameron, Candler, Estes, Hicks, Hillyer, Jervis, Jones, Matthews, Peddy, Reese, Richardson, Steadman, Wallace, Wilburn, Welch—16.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

A bill to incorporate the Oglethorpe Manufacturing Company. Passed.

A bill to amend section 364 of the Code in relation to Sheriff's fees. Lost.

A bill to amend an act to require the several Judges of the Superior Courts to give specially in charge to the several grand juries of this State sections 4489, 4490 and 4491 of the Code, relating to disturbing congregations engaged in religious worship. Passed.

A bill to empower the Ordinary of Union county to construct a public road in said county. Passed.

A bill to provide for adjudicating the rights of parties under article 7 of the Constitution, relating to the setting apart of homestead and the exemption of personalty, and allowing the plaintiff to file an affidavit that the property levied on is subject to execution, and the property to be sold thereon. Passed.

A bill to repeal section 121 of the Code—which declares a minority candidate elected, when the majority candidate cannot take the office. Passed.

A bill to abolish all offices connected with the Western and Atlantic Railroad. Passed.

A bill to make slander a criminal offense.

Mr. Candler opposed the bill on the ground that it would give rise to a great many unfounded suits.

Mr. Hillyer opposed the bill as calculated to restrain the prosecution of criminals, because the allegation necessary to procure the warrant for arrest would be indictable.

Mr. Wellborn supported the bill as the best means of checking the unbounded license which is so rife in the country.

Mr. Nicholls offered an amendment, provided the truth may be given in evidence in justification as in libel. Adopted.

Mr. Candler moved to amend by excepting language of housewives to cooks, etc. Lost.

Mr. Burns hoped the bill would not pass.

The bill was passed.

A bill to change the time of holding the Superior Courts in Flint Judicial Circuit. Passed.

A bill to incorporate the town of Doraville in DeKalb county. Passed.

A bill to amend an act to incorporate the town of Decatur, DeKalb county. Passed.

A bill to incorporate the town of Luthersville, Meriwether county. Passed.

A bill to provide a remedy by which money or property stolen or unlawfully converted or detained from the State or the Western and Atlantic Railroad may be recovered, and for other purposes.

Mr. Kibbee moved to make the bill the special order for to-morrow. Carried.

A bill to change the time of holding the Superior Courts in the Eastern Circuit. Passed.

A bill to amend an act to grant to the Savannah, Skidaway and Seaboard Railroad Company the right to construct a railroad on the streets of Savannah. Passed.

An act to authorize the Ordinary of Cherokee county to issue bonds for the purpose of building a Court House. Passed.

A bill to fix the compensation of grand and petit jurors of DeKalb county, fixing the same at $2 per day. Passed.

A bill to provide for ascertaining the amount of bonds which have been issued, to require the same to be registered, and for other purposes.

The Finance Committee reported as a substitute, a bill to protect the people of this State from the illegal issue and negotiation of bonds, providing for a commission of three, one to be elected by the Senate, and two by the House, to investigate all past transactions of that character.

Mr. Brown contended that the substitute provided for the election of persons outside the General Assembly upon this commission, and he opposed entrusting the matter to any such persons as contrary to precedent and unnecessary. He moved to strike out "commissioners elected," and insert "committee appointed."

The motion prevailed by yeas 22, nays 13.

The report was adopted and the bill passed.

A bill to allow contractors and sub-contractors on railroads a lien on the same for labor done in the construction thereof.

Mr. Brown offered an amendment "for all labor done under contract made with any railroad company."

Mr. Bruton opposed the bill upon the ground that it gives the same rights to subcontractors as to contractors.

Mr. Nunnally thought that the principal reason for the passage of the bill was because it protects the poorer men who are unable to protect themselves.

Mr. Candler opposed the bill as injurious to the rights of the State on roads to which aid had been granted.

Mr. Simmons objected because the bill would require the President of the road to see to the payment of the wages of all the laborers on the road.

Mr. Hillyer thought the misappropriation of funds by contractors ought to be punished as a crime.

The hour of adjournment having arrived pending the discussion, the Senate was declared adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House met at the usual hour, Speaker Smith in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Heidt.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

A bill by Mr. Renfroe to change the time of holding the Superior Courts in the Middle Circuit was read the first time.

Also, a bill to incorporate the city of Sandersville.

On motion of Mr. Gray, the rules were suspended to take up the resolution providing for the appointment of a joint committee to inquire into the legality of the lease of the penitentiary convicts.

Mr. Goldsmith stated that the Committee on the Penitentiary have already made the investigation and would report to-day. He therefore moved to lay Mr. Gray's resolution on the table. This motion prevailed.

The unfinished business, to-wit: The bill to appoint a committee to investigate the affairs of this State was resumed.

Mr. Phillips continued his argument, claiming that Mr. Scott's bill proposes to organize a commission with the powers of a court, and if the gentlemen who are proposed as members of the commission are obnoxious to the 14th amendment they could not act; that he is no new departurist, and does not favor the 14th amendment, but he is unwilling to see any action taken which might be made political capital by the Republican party, and result in damage to our State; he favored the substitute which provided for the appointment of a joint committee from the General Assembly to make the investigation.

Mr. Simmons, of Gwinnett, argued that it is the duty of the members of this Legislature to make this investigation, and the people expect them to do it. The commission of outsiders would constitute a sort of court, and if any of its members were obnoxious to the 14th amendment, or should decline to act, Mr. Conley would have the right to make appointments to fill vacancies. He opposed the bill on the above grounds, and opposed Mr. Phillips' substitute on the ground that the committee proposed is too large and would not begin to act until the adjournment of the Legislature.

Mr. Davis, of Newton, thought that outside of the guilty parties no one can form any idea of the magnitude of the frauds which have been perpetrated on the State; to ferret out these parties is an imperative duty, and the only question to be decided is who shall make the investigation. He favored the outside commission, because those who would compose it would have more time than members of the Legislature.

Mr. McMillan said that the charges of villainy against high officials swarm throughout the land like the locusts of Egypt, and these charges call for immediate investigation, and in his opinion the duty of making this investigation falls upon the shoulders of the members of this General Assembly.

Mr. McMillan reviewed the situation and detailed the misfortunes of our people in a speech replete with choice language and eloquence.

Mr. Pou said that when the bill proposed by Mr. Scott was first presented, he was opposed to it, but, upon further reflection, he thinks it is the measure which should be adopted. All admit that an investigation ought to be made, and the manner of making it seems to be the only difference. If it is true that the time allowed by law for the sessions of this General Assembly is too short to make a thorough investigation through its committees, then the best plan is to pass Mr. Scott's bill; that he, for one, is not afraid of responsibility, but he wants the public good first consulted. If the commissioners to be appointed under the bill are such officers as would be affected by the 14th amendment, then would it apply to an Irishman, a Swede, or other person sent to Europe to bring immigrants to Georgia.

Mr. Jackson called the previous question. The call was not sustained.

Mr Bacon was opposed to the passage of the bill, saying that he did not recognize the fact that members of this General Assembly are wanting in ability and experience; that there are members of this Legislature who are prominent and learned and he was unwilling to admit that they were sent here because their betters are ineligible. Again, as to time, it is true, that the investigation cannot be thoroughly made before the session expires, but the investigation by the committee could be continued after the adjournment, and its members could certainly spare as much time for it as those lawyers who stand at the head of the profession.

Mr. Johnson of Jefferson, was opposed to the bill remarking that the members of the Legislature are competent and willing to make this investigation; they were elected for the purpose and are bound to their constituents to do their full duty in the matter.

Mr. Riley was also opposed to the bill. He thought the members of the General Assembly quite equal to the task and did not see the use of getting outside parties to undertake it.

Mr. Hillyer said that the old saying that if you want a thing done, do it yourself; if you don't want it done, send somebody else to do it, applies in this case; he said that persons of all parties want this investigation made, and he thought that members of both political parties should be appointed on the committee so that all parties may be satisfied with the report; and if the charges are found to be true, he for one, would be glad to see punishment fall on all who are shown to deserve it.

Mr. Peeples favored the original bill, saying that the spirit of the bill is to expose fraud committed since 1868, and the best men who can be obtained ought to be appointed. A good lawyer, a good banker and a good merchant should be appointed who are experts in their professions. He named Phillip Clayton, Junius Hillyer and John A. Doane as persons eminently fitted by experience and ability for the duty.

Mr. Phillips accepted the substitute offered by Mr. Simmons, of Gwinnett, as an amendment to his substitute.

Mr. Pierce favored the adoption of the substitute, remarking that there has been no assurance given that the outside commissioners would serve if they were appointed, and although he was not much inclined to pay attention to the bastard amendments to the Constitution of the United States, yet he was ready to follow out the policy of this House and respect those amendments as law until they are repealed. If, then, they are to be respected, the ineligibility of these gentlemen would be a bar to their full discharge of this duty. In the case read by Mr. Scott yesterday, from the Pennsylvania report, the opinion was given in days of purity by men whose character and actions were as untarnished as the ermine they wore. Were such men now to expound the law he would be willing to trust to their decision; but such men and such times are not upon us, and these outside commissioners would be declared officers and held to be ineligible. He hoped that the committee to make this investigation would be appointed from the General Assembly, believing as he does that they are equal to the task.

Mr. Dell favored the substitute, and said it would go a long ways towards reconciling him to voting for the bill if he knew the gentlemen named in the bill could and would serve, and thought the bill might be so amended by change of names and features that Mr. Scott, its parent, would hardly know his offspring.

Mr. W. D. Anderson was neither for the bill nor substitutes. He was glad to hear encomiums upon the intelligence of this General Assembly, and was not unwilling to admit that all the intelligence of the State rests under disabilities. Nor would he be understood to attempt to detract from the learning of the gentlemen who are proposed as outside commissioners. Outrages have been committed upon the finances of Georgia, and that some investigation must be made is apparent to all; but common sense should prevail, and the desires of gentlemen should not be construed as reflections on the Legislature or others, but fairness, diligence and integrity should be sought, and he was pleased with the practical suggestions made by Mr. Peeples.

Mr. Anderson detailed the difficulties which will be encountered by the parties who are to make this investigation—the difficulties of tracing up the skillfully arranged plans of railroad frauds; of intricate bank accounts, etc. He favored the appointment of a small joint committee who would be authorized to employ an expert banker, a skillful lawyer and an experienced railroad man to ferret out these villainies, this idea, he said, had been suggested to him by Mr. Wood of Walker.

Mr. Scott said that he disliked again to intrude himself in the debate of this question, but on account of its magnitude he wanted to explain the motives which prompted him to introduce this bill.

Mr. Scott again urged the views he expressed on yesterday, advocating his bill and urging the importance of the measure in a speech characterized with his usual eloquence.

Mr. Riley called the previous question, which call was sustained.

On the motion to adopt the substitute, the yeas and nays were called for with the following result:

Yeas 128, nays 12.

The Committee on Internal Improvement reported in favor of adopting memorial addressed to Congress in relation to the canal between the Mississippi River and the Atlantic Ocean, and in relation to the appointment of a committee to visit Washington to further the memorial.

A Message from the Governor was received but not read. This message returned the bill to order a special election for Governor, without approval.

The House was declared adjourned until 9 A. M. to-morrow.

☞ The porter on a western sleeping car, whose bread depended largely on the oscillations of his blacking brush, was greatly crestfallen to see a legless man take possession of one of the berths. At first he was decidedly stumped as to how he could collect change for blacking the boots of the maimed passenger, but he solved the riddle by polishing the ends of the crutches. The owner rewarded the ingenious porter with a fifty cent stamp.—Exchange.

Senate Confirmations.

Editors Constitution: Allow me, through the medium of your excellent paper, to make an appeal to Senators on the subject of confirming appointments for important offices, especially judgeships of the Superior Courts. I would not say a word if I did not happen to know that certain wire-pullers are at work endeavoring to get unfit and incompetent men nominated for these offices.

It is hardly necessary to urge the importance of having good, honest and competent men to preside in our courts—men of acknowledged legal ability, and whose past lives afford a safe guaranty that they will discharge their duties faithfully and honestly. The administration of bad and incompetent judges has been one of the worst evils we have had to encounter since the war.

What we need now is confidence in judicial integrity and capacity. Give us good and efficient Judges, and the benefit resulting therefrom to the country and the people will be incalculable. Lawlessness will disappear, peace and order will reign, and dockets loaded with untried cases, the result of incompetence and indolence, will be cleared off.

It is to hoped that the Senate, in spite of wire pullers, will see that only good and competent men are confirmed for offices that the people are so closely connected with. It can at least do this much.

The Governor is liable to be imposed on and to make unsuitable nominations, therefore the Constitution has wisely given the veto power on confirmations to the Senate. The question to be asked in every case is, is he well qualified? will he command the confidence of the people? GEORGIA.

From the Macon Citizen we learn that some difficulty occurred in that city between the police force and Horace Lingard, which led to the arrest of Lingard. Before Lingard was discharged he was required to sign a card, assuming all responsibility in the matter. This card appeared in the Telegraph. Subsequently, Mr. Lingard appears in a card in the Citizen in which he says: "It is false that I refused to admit the police force free. That my making use of the word damn to the Constable is also false. I merely said that I would not admit the entire force free—that I did not think the citizens of Macon required the whole force to keep order in the theatre."

The drug store of Mr. Augusta Barie of Savannah, was robbed on Monday night of some valuable papers, twenty dollars in silver and seventy-five or eighty dollars in United States bank notes. Mr. William Hone's residence was entered on Friday night, and several valuable sets of harness and some bantam fowls were carried off. All the arrangements for the Fair have been completed. The Chicago Banks.

The Examiner appointed by the Comptroller of Currency in Washington to report on the condition of the Chicago banks since the fire, says their affairs are in a good state, and losses much less than anticipated.

The Legislature.

The Senate yesterday repealed the law declaring minority candidates elected when majority candidates cannot take their seats. This was right. Minority candidates do not represent the voice of the people. The offices of the State Road were abolished. This was right. For ten months a large squad of officers has drawn pay without work. The Senate made slander a criminal offense. It passed a bill to appoint a committee of three, one from the Senate and two from the House, to investigate the bond transactions of the State.

The House passed a bill for the appointment of a joint committee of seven to investigate the State frauds. This settles this matter against the outside committee. The vote was 128 to 12 in favor of a legislative committee. We trust that the Senate will pass the bill right away, so that the committee may go to work.

The Acting Governor, as expected, has vetoed the election bill. Let it be passed over his veto.

Books for Children.

The question as to what books we ought to give children to read is quite an important one. To cultivate a taste for reading in little ones should be the aim of every parent. To get books for them useful and entertaining is often difficult.

It is remarkable what a number of children's books are being published. A whole library of choice juvenile reading can be obtained. In looking over the books in Phillips & Crew's fine store, we have been struck with the large quantity written and published specially for the little folks.

We noticed one amusing little brochure, entitled "Mother Goose set to Music," published by Carlton & Co., of New York. A prettily bound volume, published by Lee & Shephard, of Boston, called "The Children's Sunday Album," we glanced over with the conclusion that it was an admirable little Sabbath book. "Field and Forest," by Oliver Optic, of the Upward and Onward series and "Spark of Genius," by Kellogg, of the Whispering Pine series, both published by Lee & Shephard, of Boston, presented two attractive volumes handsomely bound for the delight of the young reader.

We have no space to catalogue more of the interesting stock of children's books in the collection of Phillips & Crew, but they can furnish anything needed

The Cartersville and Van Wert Railroad.

We have learned some facts in regard to the Cartersville and Van Wert Railroad that excite no pleasant sensations in the reader's mind.

On the 12th day of April, 1870, Mr. Cooper, the President of the road, delivered to Col. D. G. Cotting, the Secretary of State, $100,000 of the road bonds for State indorsement, taking Cotting's receipt for them to be substituted by Governor Bullock. The road still holds Colonel Cotting's receipt. On the same day the rest of the bonds to the amount of $200,000 were deposited by Colonel Cooper with Perino Brown, agent of the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company in Atlanta.

On the 22d day of June, 1870, Mr. Brown delivered to Mr. Kimball $100,000 of the bonds in his possession on Colonel Cooper's order. And on the 9th day of August, 1870, Mr. Brown delivered $75,000 more of the bonds to Mr. Kimball on Colonel Cooper's order.

Thus we see that $275,000 of these bonds were issued before five miles of the road was fully finished. Only 3 84-100 miles from Cartersville to the Etowah was completed The law allows the State indorsement to the bonds of $12,500 per mile when each five miles are done, or in batches of $62,500 for every five miles.

In addition to the $275,000 of these bonds, Governor Bullock has had issued $300,000 more, ostensibly to be exchanged for the first $275,000, but both sets are out.

On the 11th of April, 1870, Laman Conant & Co., the contractors, wrote to Colonel Cooper requesting him to ask Governor Bullock to turn over to Clews & Co., of New York, the bonds for advances when the bonds shall have been indorsed by him. On the 12th Colonel Cooper made the request of Governor Bullock.

Governor Bullock indorsed these bonds knowing the road was unbuilt. If we had nothing else against him, this violation of his duty alone would justify his impeachment.

It is with pain we give these facts, because they implicate parties respected hitherto. But we have no choice. The truth must be told, let it hurt whom it may.

This road is twenty-two miles long. $275,000 is the whole indorsement it is entitled to when done. Yet all was given before five miles were done. And fourteen miles only is complete now. Thus has Bullock committed the State to the payment of a large amount of principal and interest illegally. Clews & Co hold the $275,000. Who have the last $300,000 is not known.

Here is matter for the Legislature.

Are the Bonds Valid Obligations!

[From the Southern Argus.]

Just before Bullock resigned the Governorship of Georgia, he, in violation of law, signed, sealed, and delivered, several millions of dollars in railroad bonds, to which the roads or persons receiving and holding them have no more valid title than have the corporations or persons receiving and holding them to the bonds fraudulently issued in the name of Alabama to the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad. It is alleged that Governor Scott and his confederates in South Carolina have recently issued without authority of law, fraudulently and corruptly, some sixteen millions of dollars of the bonds of that State. In Florida, North Carolina and other Southern States, the case is the same. But according to the Montgomery Advertiser and the Montgomery Advance, the people of these States must pay those bonds, principal and interest, to the last cent, if it take their lands, homes, stock, the clothes from their backs the bread from the mouths of their children—pay them to the uttermost farthing, or have the amount collected from them, with costs and penalties, by the officers of the Federal courts. We think it is time to make a test case. We hope Alabama will take steps to ascertain whether, under the forms of law, all the property in the State can be pledged and bound for the use and benefit of corrupt rings and combinations obtaining control of the seal of the commonwealth by bribery and corruption.

The remedy is simple. No illegal bonds are valid. The plea of non est factum applies. Illegal bonds are not bonds. The law of the bonds are a part of the contract, which the bondholder must know and be bound by. Ignorance of the law is no excuse. The purchaser of bonds is put on notice by the law. If the bond violates the law it is no bond.

Now let the Legislature look into the matter, and find out all the illegal bonds. It is the mass of spurious securities that is affecting the State's credit. Let the spurious ones be called in, and instantly every Georgia bond will bring par value. This is alike due to the State and the legal bondholders.

This is the simple solution of this whole bond matter, complicated as it seems. Nothing is binding that is not legal. Get the illegal bonds out of the way. There is no such thing as repudiating illegal bonds. They repudiate themselves. They are not the State's contracts, and she is'nt bound by them. Let the State stand up to every legal contract whether beneficial or not. But to pay illegal bonds is to give her corrupt servants and their colleagues the benefit of their own wrong, and make the State pay what she never contracted to pay, and what her laws, open to the world, forbade her paying.

The first thing is to find the illegal bonds and get them out of the way. This will at one bound carry up the legal bonds to their full value, and place the State's credit at par.

Swedish Servants.

In another column we give a letter from Mr. Foss, an Emigration Agent, written to THE CONSTITUTION from Goteborg, Sweden, in regard to Swedish servants for Georgia It will repay perusal.

The question of domestic help is a serious one. All housekeepers know the trouble. Servants are signally unreliable, since freedom of the black. From all quarters arise complaints, and clamor for something better. The experiment of Swedish labor is fully started. Mr. Foss has obtained a large batch, and can get plenty more. He represents the Swedish servants as modest, hard-working, tractable and reliable. He further states that much depends on the employers here in encouraging this immigration. By treating this new help well, so that they will write back good accounts to their friends in Sweden, we can greatly assist this movement.

The matter is an important one, and well worthy of our careful consideration.

The Esthetic Aspect of Newspapers.

The newspaper—as our fair readers know—is not only an adjunct of the gentleman's breakfast table, but is employed by the ladies for a more mysterious and more important purpose. A New York correspondent of the St. Louis Republican gives us some information as to the relative merits of various well-known journals, considered with reference to their fitness for this interesting use. He says:

I find that newspapers are made into nice, airy, light, melodious bustles, and a lady friend begs me to save her all the Missouri Republicans, as they are better than Beecher's Independent, for bustles.

The Independent, it seems, although big and thick, has not that reliable quality of toughness possessed by the Republican. The New York Herald is entirely unfitted for this pleasant vocation, as its pliability and absorptive properties eminently fit it for window washing. However, it will not lose its usefulness in consequence. The Times again has the requisite size and stiffness—but there's a brittle rottenness about it that excludes that sheet from the bright destiny of being hung on a string and tied about a lady's waist. It will sustain no pressure, and has a tendency to go back on one, which is very discouraging. The Tribune also is "out in the cold," on account of its smutty propensities, not that Horace fails to impart a high moral tone to his sheet, but he uses the crockiest big type in expressing his views on early vegetables and early piety, that, when brought to bear on white petticoats, demoralizes their pristine purity. Were the admirable qualities of the Republican more generally known among the New York ladies, it would be the means of securing an army of fashionable subscribers

As far as the Georgia journals are concerned we are in some doubt as to the relative merits for this esthetic service. The Macon Telegraph would do admirably whenever weighted by Brother Clisby's notes on farming.

The Savannah News has toughness enough, but crackles too much when Harris shoots off his Georgia news.

The Sparta Times and Planter comes the closest to suiting all around. It is big, stiff, and spraddly from plethora of prosperity.

Colonel Sneed is making the Savannah Republican quite bustling since he got free from business trammels.

The Augusta papers are quite popular, we believe, in this line of duty.

The Rome Commercial is very handy, particularly since its advent into matrimony. It makes a graceful tasty ornament.

The Atlanta Sun and Columbus papers are rather small, but otherwise will do very well. We are disposed to think our Agricultural papers fill the bill the best. They need little folding and are as thick as a corn-dodger.

Communicated.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
ATLANTA, GA., November 21, 1871.

To the Hon. Mr. Fain, Chairman, and Gentlemen of the Committee on New Counties and County Lines:

We, the undersigned, Representatives of Merriwether county, Georgia, beg leave respectfully to state that a large portion of their constituents, at least three-fourths, are opposed to the dismemberment of their county for any purpose whatever.

We make this statement in view of the fact that a bill is now pending in the House, which we suppose will be referred to the Committee on New Counties and County Lines, providing for cutting off a portion of our county (Merriwether) and other counties for the purpose of forming a new county.

We trust that the wishes of our people may be respected in this matter.

Respectfully, W. H. F. HALL,
J. W. MORELAND,
Representatives of Merriwether.

☞ A lawyer prosecuting a thief recently on circuit remarked that "opportunity makes the thief." "Not always, sir," replied the innocent; "I found a big anchor and chain cable on the pavement once, and didn't touch it, and there was nobody about either.—Index.

☞ Even Beecher has begun to throw dirt upon his old friend and ideal—U. S. Grant. He says: "If places of trust shall continue to be put up for sale, as they have been, this Government cannot exist long."

Impeachment.

The interest taken by journals outside of the State in the impeachment of Governor Bullock is rather remarkable. From many different quarters come up urgent entreaties to push the matter. The Constitution provides for impeachment after leaving office as well as while in office. And the reason of the law is conclusive. The penalty of impeachment is disqualification for further office-holding. If a Governor is guilty of crimes demanding impeachment and heinous enough to make him unworthy of future trust, no delay of discovery should work his exemption from disqualification, while no other method of trial is provided to put the penalty upon him. Concealment of his crime beyond his term should not be the barrier to his punishment. Otherwise the sharpest rascal, by shrewd concealment, might work his way into office again.

The opinion grows upon us that there should be an impeachment of Bullock.

The Boston Post has this to say about the matter. It will be seen that the Post takes the ground that the national public is interested in Bullock's punishment, particularly as his crimes have been upheld by the Radical administration at Washington. The point is a strong one.

The Senate, if he were impeached, could do nothing more than disqualify him for office; and that sentence he has already, by anticipation, inflicted upon himself, and whatever stigma or disgrace attaches to the disqualification is as effectually fastened upon him by his own act as it could be by legislative decision. His impeachment is still urged, however, not so much for the purpose of affixing this stigma, durably and permanently, as might be done, but for the sake of bringing to public light and reprobation the mismanagement of affairs in Georgia, which has made carpet-bagism and the whole system of reconstruction a by-word and reproach. The exposition which would follow the impeachment of a man who has been so conspicuous a representative of reconstruction as Bullock, would be instructive and valuable, no doubt, to the nation at large. And something is due to the whole public, which has for two years past been annoyed and shocked beyond measure by the boldness and effrontery and palpable corruption which have marked Bullock's public bearing and distinguished his scandalous reign in Georgia, upheld as he has been by the countenance and support of the Radical administration at Washington.

The Investigation of State Frauds.

We call the attention of the Legislature to the letter to be found in another column, signed "One of the People," asking why the matter of investigation into the frauds of Bullock and his colleagues is not pushed more vigorously. The writer is one of the first citizens of Georgia, and represents a feeling that is wide-spread. From all of the leading papers in the State comes the same appeal. We find the following in the Savannah News:

We invite attention to the communication of "A Citizen" in another column. The writer, who is a prominent citizen of Georgia, expresses the almost universal sentiment of the people of the State when he charges the Legislature with inexcusable tardiness, and with disappointing the public expectation in not instituting a proper investigation of the fraud and corruption which has disgraced the administration of the absconded Bullock. The extraordinary delay in the discharge of this plain duty is causing general dissatisfaction, and giving rise to suspicions that there are influences at work in the General Assembly, for which the plea of "fear and intimidation" is only a convenient excuse. It is to be hoped that immediate and thorough action will effectually dissipate such suspicions.

We call to the legislative attention the current of public feeling. Grave suspicions are being aroused, which we believe have no real foundation. There has been some diversity of opinion as to the method of investigation. Some advocate an outside committee; others a legislative committee; others impeachment. The importance of the matter calls for great deliberation and sound judgment. But all the possible promptness should be used.

The people demand a thorough inquiry into the whole matter, and will be satisfied with nothing less. No outside complications will be taken as an excuse for failure. We believe that the Legislature means to do its whole duty in the premises. And in this belief we press prompt action.

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE

General Wofford States His Position Clearly—He Denies Being in the State Road Interest or Party to any Ring.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 17, 1871.

General William T. Wofford, Kimball House:

DEAR SIR—Certain rumors involving your name are afloat. It is said:

First—That you are in the interest of the lessees of the Western and Atlantic Railroad.

Secondly—That through the procurement of yourself and the Hon. Thomas M. Norwood, a combination or "ring" of the friends of both was formed, looking to his election to the office of United States Senator and to your own preferment to that of Governor.

In accusation number one the palpable point of your offending does not quite appear. It is sufficient, however, for the tongue of evil report.

Number two already has had an explicit denial from Senator Norwood.

☞ The best known and the best indeed in the midst of these evil days may find it not amiss to regulate their record out of their own mouths, or with their signs manual. At the instance of a number of gentlemen, I write to request a statement from your own hand of the truth as to these several matters.

With high respect, your friend and obedient servant, GARNETT MCMILLAN.

CARTERSVILLE, GA., November 21, 1871.

Dear Sir: Yours of the 17th instant has been received, and but for absence, both from Atlanta and from home, would have had an earlier answer.

I reply to the rumors you mention, as they stand in your note:

The first is that I am "in the interest of the lessees of the Western and Atlantic Railroad." This rumor is entirely without foundation—is absolutely false. I am not "in the interest" of any man or set of men, but in the interest of Georgia and her people. As to the lease of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, I have always said and now repeat that if it was fairly obtained, the lessees, so far as I am concerned, have nothing to fear—if unfairly obtained, nothing to hope. Can an honest man say either less or more?

As to the second, the supposed combination between Mr. Norwood and myself and our friends: The public already has his reply. So far as concerns myself I have to say, there is not and never was any such "combination or ring." So far as I know or believe, no such combination was ever thought of, much less talked about or entered into.

I regret that such rumors cannot be traced to any responsible author; if they could they would be met in such manner as would render their circulation as rumor unnecessary. They should be branded and recognized by their authors as falsehoods.

Thanking you for calling my attention to these false reports, I am very sincerely, your friend and obedient servant,

WM. T. WOFFORD.

Hon. Garnett McMillan, House of Representatives, Atlanta.

☞ A correspondent of a New York paper relates the following touching anecdote: "I found a cockroach struggling in a bowl of water. I took half a peanut shell for a boat. I put him into it and gave him two wooden toothpicks for oars, and left him. The next morning I visited him, and he had put a piece of white cotton thread on one of the toothpicks, and set the toothpick up on end as a signal of distress. He had a hair on the other toothpick, and there that cockroach sat a fishing, fast asleep from exhaustion. The sight melted me to tears. I took that cockroach out, gave him a spoonful of gruel and left. The animal never forgot that act of kindness, and now my house is chock full of cockroaches."

OUR SWEDISH LETTER.

A Batch of Swedish Servants will be in Georgia in December—We Can Get all the Swedish Servants we Want—A word to Georgians who Want Help.

GOTEBORG DEN, November 3, 1871.

Editors Constitution: Being on the eve of leaving this country after a successful sojourn here, I beg leave to address you a few lines.

I leave here the 10th of November, and will, God willing, be in Georgia first days of December, probably the 2d. I am bringing with me 125 servants, all very good and have had applications from a couple hundred more. I have put the business in fine trim, and can now get 1,000 servants a year, closely selected from the very best. But the success of the enterprise depends entirely on how these people are treated by their new masters. The Swedes are very quiet, hard-working and industrious, a good word will go a long way with them, when unkindness soon makes the blood they have inherited from their ancestors, the "Vikings," run hot in their veins. Used to hardships of all kinds from early youth, they will not grumble, but they are not treated very well by their masters here, which makes them anxious to leave, and if not kindly treated in their new homes they will write to their friends here and Georgia will soon get an ugly name here, and stop every bit of emigration to your State. On the other hand, if the people are satisfied, you will have hundreds, if not thousands, who can pay their own passage, who will emigrate to the place where their friends, resident in Georgia, have found their homes. This is a very essential point and well worthy of consideration, and I hope I shall never have any cause to regret that I have brought my countrymen to Georgia, and hope you will impress on your readers the necessity of giving no one any just cause of complaint. My arrangements here are now very complete, and long before I arrive in Sweden next time, a couple hundred of first class servants will have been selected and awaiting my approval. I have appointed agents all over the country, who will only engage such as they know to be good and can be recommended, which will be an easily conceived advantage. If the gentlemen of Georgia will assist me and carry out the programme of justice and kindness to my emigrants, the time will not be very distant when the want of good servants will be felt a good deal less than it has been for some time past. Dear sir, yours obediently, J. FOSS, Emigrant Agent.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

To the Members of the Georgia Legislature:

GENTLEMEN—The Trustees of the State University have prepared a memorial to your honorable body, soliciting the aid of the State in advancing the interests of the institution of which they are the conservators.

An earnest friend of the College begs your attention to a few plain, practical words in favor of this memorial.

The Trustees solicit an endowment of $500,000, to be given in bonds of the State of Georgia, running fifty years and renewable at the pleasure of the Legislature.

Their object in seeking this endowment is to afford an opportunity to our youth of gaining a practical education as geologists, miners, engineers, practical chemists and farmers in our own State.

This opportunity does not now exist. It is for you to say whether or not it shall exist.

Our people are poor beyond expression. The day has gone by when a man can start his son in life with a sum of money sufficient to maintain him. The cry everywhere—the piteous, imploring cry, is: "Let me give my son an education; I can leave him nothing else; at least, afford me the means to give him that."

This endowment proposes to grant this heart-rending, despairing entreaty. It will enable the College to give a practical, scientific education to our youth at a merely nominal expense.

But, says some conscientious and honest Legislator, "We are, financially, in a state of absolute chaos; no mortal man knows the present indebtedness of the State of Georgia. Why not wait until this matter is cleared up?"

Ah, my friend, the starving cannot wait! The need is too pressing for delay. Moreover, the Trustees do not propose to place these bonds upon the market. They ask for them as a permanent endowment, of which the bill especially provides that they shall use only the interest—the principal never to be diminished. Well, now, gentlemen, the coupons on $500,000 will be $35,000 a year. This amount, if it is raised by taxation, will assign just about an average of $169 to each county in Georgia. Or, if taken from the income of the State Road, would consume less than the rent of the road for six weeks! Oh, gentlemen, surely the State of Georgia can contribute this pitiful sum to the education of her sons.

I will prosecute the subject in another issue. X.

Why are the Public Frauds not Investigated!

Editors Constitution: Situated as you are at the seat of government, and possessed of the means of obtaining information, you will pardon one of the people for requesting information on one subject.

What is the reason the Legislature has not progressed with the investigation with the alleged frauds on the public by its officers and agents? What is the matter? Everybody know that they exist; all expected, on the meeting of the Legislature, investigation would be instituted immediately and prosecuted vigorously, the perpetrators exposed and punished. But, up to this time, as the public are advised, no decided action has been taken in that direction by the Legislature.

It is known that there are persons in position who do not desire such investigation should be had. But it cannot be that they have an influence sufficient to paralyze a Legislature fresh from a slandered and injured people.

It will probably be said that the time allowed for the session is too short for the accomplishment of this work. It is known that the session can be prolonged; or adopt the suggestion of organizing an outside commission to make the investigation for them and report the proof.

The Legislature should be advised that no such apology will be satisfactory, and no excuse sufficient to justify the omission of so important a duty. The people are in earnest about this matter. They are determined that no man or set of men of their own State, of any race or color, shall insult, slander and rob them with impunity; that the embezzlement of public funds is a crime; and the sooner the Legislature is advised of this determination and wake up to a proper sense of their obligations to their constituents, the better.

And I beg that you, as a public journalist, at the door of the Capitol, would admonish them on this subject.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

"No, I THANK YOU!"—At a recent spiritual sitting in this city, there was present a woman who mourned the loss of her consort; and, as the manifestations began to appear, the spirit of the departed benedict appeared upon the scene. Of course the widow was now anxious to engage in conversation with the absent one, and the following dialogue ensued:

Widow—"Are you in the spirit world?"
The lamented—"I am."
Widow—"How long have you been there?"
The lamented—"O, some time!"
Widow—"Don't you want to come back and be with your lonely wife?"
The lamented—"Not if I know myself! It's 'hot' enough here."

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The President has ordered that the Supervisory District comprising Alabama and Mississippi be annexed and united with the State of Tennessee, and hereafter will constitute but one Supervisory District.

General Walker has been appointed Commissioner of Indian Affairs, but will continue the superintendence of the census until completed.

General Spinner's report recommends that all delinquent National Banks be charged interest for every ten days' delay in paying taxes.

He says not one cent has been lost to the Government during the year by employees in his office. He states that the Government has no five per cent. of Newtown for sale.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 21.—At 11 o'clock this morning the steamer Mary Powell with the Reception Committee and about five hundred persons, including a large number of ladies, proceeded down the Bay.

Over one thousand persons assembled at the pier to witness their departure. The steamer was gaily decorated with Russian and American flags. Nearly all the vessels in the Bay were dressed with flags, many of them displaying Russian colors.

Broadway is thronged with persons awaiting the parade. A great number have arrived from the country in early trains. The buildings on Broadway and other principal streets are decorated with flags. The National Guard is out in full force. The weather is fine. The reception will be brilliant.

The crowds on Broadway are so dense that locomotion is almost impossible. Every window and space from which a view can be obtained is occupied. Ten thousand troops in line—extending two miles.

Alexis landed at half-past one o'clock, when the procession moved during intervals of the reception.

Your Imperial Highness: In the name of the citizens of New York I have the honor to tender you a cordial welcome to the United States.

It is great gratification to us to see within our harbor the squadron which has brought you to our shores. It is still greater gratification to us to receive among us one of the Imperial family of Russia, whose industrious chief has done so much for civilization, and in whose hands the possession of power has, under the guidance of Providence, been devoted to the noblest of uses—the social and political elevation of those who come within the sphere of its exercise. The long and uninterrupted friendly relations between Russia and the United States have naturally created strong sympathy on our part in all that concerns her welfare, and has caused us to regard with deep interest her steady but silent progress eastward, shedding at every advance the lights of christian civilization over regions which have been buried for ages in comparative darkness. Your imperial highness will no doubt find much in our country which is novel to Europeans, which will be remembered as a source of useful suggestion of political societies.

In the name of the citizens in whose behalf I speak, I tender you a sincere welcome.

The Prince replied as follows:

General Dix, Ladies and Gentlemen: I beg to express my warm thanks for the manner in which I have been received. The feeling, which exists between Russia and the United States is as strong as it is lasting, and nothing can disturb it. I shall pass rapidly through New York to pay my respects to the President, whose high character is greatly appreciated everywhere, but on my return I shall have the pleasure to accept your hospitality so kindly tendered me.

It is stated that a quarter of a million of frauds have been perpetrated upon the Brooklyn Treasury by the ring there.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 21.—In the Court of General Sessions this morning, Judge Bedford charged the grand jury on the frauds against the city, suggested that the jury send for Chas. O'Connor to assist them in the immediate rigid investigation of all notorious frauds without respect to persons or political parties; it mattered not that many of the alleged criminals have fled the country, the law would reach them.

The World states that the charters of the several savings banks owned by the ring don't contain provisions for the protection of the public which are found in the charters of all other savings banks.

It is rumored that Jas. M. Sweeney, brother of Peter B. Sweeney, has fled to Europe, and that evidence is in the hands of Chas. O'Connor of frauds by him in connection with Tweed and others.

NOTICE

TO RUPTURED PERSONS OF ATLANTA.

RADICAL CURE OF

ABDOMINAL HERNIA OR RUPTURE,

Without Inconvenience to the Patient, or Restriction in Exercise or Diet.

DR. J. L. ROWE, Artistic Surgeon, having devoted his time exclusively to the study and treatment of Abdominal Hernia, in its various forms and stages, respectfully announces to the public that he has opened an office, Room No. 2, Capitol Building, Atlanta Georgia, where, during business hours, he can be consulted.

During an experience of over twenty years, Dr. R. has treated several thousand ruptured patients of both sexes and of all ages, a great number of whom were restored to health, vigor and a sound body.

This has been effected by assiduous study and the use of his inventions, in conjunction with his popular remedies, being an external application, promoting a speedy and permanent cure, without the suffering and injuries resulting from the rigid and insupportable pressure of a Truss.

So reliable is this treatment that the patient, in most instances from the first application, will cease to be annoyed by a return of the rupture, and will be enabled to take the most active exercise on foot or on horseback, with perfect security against the dangers of strangulated Hernia.

DR. ROWE'S ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER.

Relief and cure for Female, Uterine or Abdominal weaknesses, Corpulency or general Debility. Very light and comfortable.

The New York Method st. of 9th May, 1866, highly recommends Dr. Rowe's successful treatment of Ruptures and Deformities. The editor has extensive acquaintance with his patients, and positive knowledge of very wonderful cures. He therefore invites the earnest attention of the afflicted and the [illegible] of the profession.

No charge for examination under any circumstances whatever. I invite the ruptured, and all persons interested, to call and examine for themselves.

Positive certificates of many radical cures can be shown—among others, several clergymen.

ATLANTA:

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1871.

City Intelligence.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mayson, at the Live Auction Mart, under DeGive's Opera House has a large auction sale to-morrow. Furniture, crockery, dry goods shoes, clothing, groceries, etc., will be offered.

Phillips & J. K'lby has taken up two stray mules.

Colonel G. W. Adair will sell the Dorsey property at the City Hall, on the First Tuesday in December.

J. H. Hill offers to exchange his plantation on Red River, in Louisiana, for property in Atlanta, or sell it.

Orders for carpet, with colors desired, size of room, etc., promptly attended to by Kendrick & Son.

Kendrick & Son have a large stock of window shades.

For book and job work, call at THE CONSTITUTION job office.

Pamphlet copies of Decisions of the Supreme Court, in wrapper, only $1. Send in orders for them to THE CONSTITUTION office.

Now is the time to subscribe for THE CONSTITUTION.

THE LONDON STORE has just received an endless assortment of the ladies' wants.

MULES TAKEN UP.—Policeman J. Kilby took up a mouse colored and a black mule. They are at the stables of O. H. Jones & Co. See notice.

VERY pure Furs and the most Water-proof Umbrella can be seen at the London Store, Marietta street.

A QUESTION.—What has become of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and their memorial to the Legislature to pass a law on the subject?

LARGE TURNIP.—James M. Singleton living near Stone Mountain, in DeKalb county, yesterday sent to our office a turnip, weighing over nine pounds.

THE DORSEY PROPERTY.—Colonel G. W. Adair will sell this valuable property divided in one acre lots, at the City Hall, on the first Tuesday in December.

LOUISIANA PLANTATION FOR SALE.—J. H. Hill offers to sell his plantation lying in Louisiana on Red river, or exchange for property in Atlanta. He is represented here by Wallace & Fowler.

It is said that the London Store shows a greater variety of fancy goods than any other establishment in Georgia.

NEW PAPER.—We learn that a new paper is to be started in Atlanta under the name of "The Constitutional Monarchist," and devoted to the advocacy of the doctrine of Imperialism. We wait to see if it advocates Grant.

OAK HALL CLOTHING STORE.—Persons desirous of supplying themselves with stylish and well fitting garments will do well to visit the Oak Hall Clothing Store, where M. & J. Hirsch will wait upon and suit them.

NEVER has there been seen a more elegant assortment of ladies' ties, laces, sets and fringes than those just opened at the London Store.

MORE THANKS.—We neglected to mention yesterday morning the reception of oysters in a variety of shapes sent into the news room, from the New Orleans Dime Restaurant, (Odd Fellows Block,) Marietta street, under J. J. Norman & Bro., kept by M. H. Beatty.

REV. M. D. WOOD.—The announcement that a new trial has been granted to Rev. M. D. Wood has been received by the people generally with satisfaction. The opinion is daily strengthening that not only is he not guilty of the crime of seduction, but of any crime.

TWO SENATORS MULCTED.—Senators Wallace and Devaux were arraigned before Mayor Hammond on Monday, on the charge of disorderly conduct, firing off pistols, etc., and fined $5 and costs. It is probable the Grand Jury will get after them for carrying concealed weapons.

SPIRITS.—The Philadelphia and Atlanta Wine and Liquor Company are still asking the public to patronize them. They have a large stock of wines and liquors which they guarantee good, and offer to sell cheap. The Pride of Pennsylvania Rye is still ahead, and only Democratic councils to hear from.

FULTON SUPERIOR COURT.—Yesterday Frank Phillips (colored), was tried for the offense of burglary in the night time (breaking into H. Cohen's store) in Fulton Superior Court, and found guilty. He was sentenced to the Penitentiary for twenty years.

John Simons (colored) was tried for the offense of larceny after trust delegated, and acquitted.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. L. Jones, Mayor of Covington, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. David L. Anderson is in the city.

Simeon Smith, one of the proprietors of the Conyers Hotel, was in the city yesterday.

Hon. W. A. Little, Assistant Secretary of the Senate and family are stopping with Mrs. L. B. Davis on Forsyth street.

DEGIVE'S.—The Female Miller was the first play at DeGive's last night. The audience was select and fashionable. Miss Effie Johns, the "Elfie Star," was greeted with rounds of enthusiastic applause, and rendered her role with exceeding grace and artistic skill. She is supported by a talented troupe, and our citizens are certainly gratified at being able to enjoy a week of elegant enjoyment in witnessing the charming acting of Miss Johns, and the other artistes of Manager Girardey's popular dramatic troupe. Another fine bill to-night.

T. C. MAYSON.—The Live Auction Mart, under DeGive's Opera House, under the energetic and live efforts of T. C. Mayson, has become a "fixture"—a public institution. Captain J. H. Barrett is the auctioneer, and, although "ever crying," never sheds a tear.

To-morrow, Mayson has a large sale of clothing, groceries, etc., on account of the Government, and a general line of furniture and household goods.

He will also sell a large and well assorted stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, clothing and crockery. Merchants will do well to make a note of the sale.

WORK ON THE STREETS.—In our endorsement yesterday of a communication, we did not intend to condemn any one in particular. The street carts have been divided between the various wards, and the Chairman of the Street Committee has no control over any but those of his immediate ward. But we intended to say that the condition of streets about the Court House and the Hall of the city is altogether wrong, and should be immediately remedied. The carts belonging in a given ward could not do the work for months, and therefore a large force should be put upon it irrespective of wards. The City Council should not allow another meeting to pass without attending to this matter.

VOTE OF THANKS.—At a meeting of the students of Oglethorpe University, it was unanimously

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to the Mayor and Council of the city of Atlanta for the use of the City Hall.

Resolved, That we thank the polite and attentive Hall-keeper, Mr. Fitzgibbons, for his assistance on the occasion of our anniversary.

NOTICE.—JOURNAL OF COMMERCE OFFICE, Atlanta, Georgia, December 18, 1871.—Owing to the ruling of the Postmaster, founded on the Post Office Regulations of the United States, the Atlanta Journal of Commerce is subject to prepayment of postage, an item of expense not originally contemplated or provided for when projected. Its publication under that title is therefore suspended, and it will be merged into another: a four-column, eight page paper—to be published weekly—entitled "The Atlanta Journal," devoted to the interests of Commerce, Railways, Mining, Manufacturing, Immigration, General Development, etc., which will be under the direct and exclusive control, editorially, of Mr. J. S. Peterson, who is recognized as one of the best informed and ablest statisticians in the South, and whose writings on all the subjects proposed to be discussed in the columns of the Journal, is acknowledged to have but few superiors. The undersigned will be the publisher.

The first number of the Atlanta Journal will be issued on Friday, December 1, 1871, at the rate of three dollars per annum, in advance. Subscriptions and advertisements respectfully solicited.

All advertising contracts made by the Journal of Commerce will be carried out by the Atlanta Journal, if desired by the advertiser.

W. F. CLARK,
Proprietor Sun Joe Office,
and Publisher Journal of Commerce.

Exchanges of the Journal of Commerce will confer a favor by calling attention to this notice.

THE LAST CHANCE.—Remember that the drawing for the Aiken Land Sale takes place on the 6th instant. Those wishing shares will repair at once to Phillips & Crew.

ANCIENT HIEROGLYPHICS.—On the 11th instant, Colonel H. W. Frobel, Colonel W. H. Weems and the writer, met Professor W. J. Land on the summit of Stone Mountain. Professor Land called attention to what he thought was hieroglyphics. They consist of a slightly circular line, cut from two to three inches deep and in the proportion of from one to two feet from the center. A plainly marked circle surrounds it, varying from one foot to six feet in circumference. These hieroglyphics vary in size, and are to be found in abundance from the summit to the base, and invariably face east. Heretofore the casual observer has attributed these hieroglyphics to exfoliation from heat and cold, or the action of the elements. Close observation, however, dissipates this view. Their uniformity and number prove that they are the work of man. The Indians who inhabited this part of Georgia could give no account of the breastwork which was to be seen around the mountain (except what is known as the steep side) when the "pale faces" began to settle here.

In this connection, we would cite the reader to volumes of Stephens' travels in Central America, Chiapas, and Yucatan. On the outer corridor of No. 1, Casa de Piedra, Palenque on a tablet, of hieroglyphics, are several bearing a close resemblance to those found at Stone Mountain. Figures were found at Santa Cruz Del Quiche resembling in a great degree an idol found near Cartersville on Colonel Tumlin's place.

Mr. Stephens gives it as his opinion that Central America, Chiapas and Yucatan was at one time inhabited by the same race, having the same language or at least employing the same written characters.

Perhaps, yet, some man of science will be enabled to unravel all these mysteries and read the history of that race which some contend, with a plausibility amounting to certainty, inhabited this country before the Indians, of whom at present we have no accurate knowledge.

Last Saturday, Dr. Stephenson, Professor Stephens and Professor Land visited Stone Mountain, but had no time to extend their investigations. The credit of the discovery of the hieroglyphics is due to Professor Land.

The State should protect and preserve this great natural curiosity, and ought to own it.

[CORRECTED DAILY.]
CONSTITUTION OFFICE,
ATLANTA, November 21, 6 o'clock, P. M.

While the necessities and wants of the people have not diminished, their ability to supply them, judging from commercial transactions, appears to decrease. Trade is active, but not as brisk as it should be. The great drawback is—the scarcity of money. While perhaps the restrictions upon interest may have some influence in creating this scarcity, yet, we think the evil has a broader foundation. It is due to the fact that we send the money out of the country for hay, corn, oats, bacon, mules, leather, cloth, brooms, passenger and freight cars, etc. This last item, of passenger and freight cars, exerts a more detrimental influence than the mere sending of the money out of the country. Many of the roads have workshops fitted up, skilled workmen and material. Many of these workmen are kept on half-time during part of the year. The workshops are exempt from taxation, and pay nothing into the treasury. The workmen are deprived from adding by one-half as much as they can towards the wealth of the State. In the end, the railroad suffers more than she gains. If our people would thrive and see money plenty, they must foster manufactures at home and keep all the money here possible.

SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT

Has made the most astonishing Cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the Body undergoes, under the influence of this Truly Wonderful Medicine, that

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent powers to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints,

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

SUCCESS IN STOCK KEEPING.—Keep the animals comfortable; shelter them from storms and cold; give them fresh air; a variety of food, regular meals and undisturbed rest.

Fresh earth is one of nature's best disinfectants. The quickest and most efficient way of cleaning a pig pen is to throw a few shovelfuls of dirt into it every two or three days. The dirt should be dry and well pulverized. It then absorbs all the offensive matter, and puts an end to the noxious odors. The same prescription is applicable to fowl houses.

MATERIALS FOR MANURE.—There is much waste matter about Atlanta which would augment a manure pile. Ashes, leather scraps, tanner's offal, saw dust, chip dirt, oyster shells, scrapings of the streets, straw, and refuse generally; all of which would make valuable additions to the compost heap. There is much valuable waste matter to be gathered about the lots and streets of the city.

To raise peaches without stones, a gentleman who has tried it, says: "Turn the tops of the trees down, cut off the ends, stick them into the ground, and fasten them so with stakes, in a year or two these tops will take root; when well rooted, cut off the branches connecting these reversed and rooted branches with the tree proper, and this reversed peach tree will produce fine peaches without stones." ☞ The cause of the postage stamps, bearing the portraits of Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, Jackson and others, curling and twisting in all kinds of shapes, is under consideration by post-office officials, and the conclusion has about been reached that those old fellows cannot lie still amid the corruption and political rascality that is going on all around them.—Patriot.

A LOCAL REPORT OF THE PERIOD.—"Mr. Collins of Hartford, bought a ferocious watch dog. Mr. Collins came home late that night. His wife says that his trousers can't be mended. The dog's skin is for sale cheap. Mr. Collins hopes to be able to sit down in a few weeks."

☞ The National Lifeboat Association of England has a fleet of two hundred and thirty lifeboats, and rescues every year about eight hundred shipwrecked persons. Altogether, since its establishment, it has contributed to rescuing from death upwards of twenty thousand people.—Gazette.

☞ In Germany the barbers have struck for five cents for hair cutting and two and a half cents for shaving. They are now receiving three and a half cents and one and a half cents respectively.—World

READ THIS.—BERLIN, (WIS.) January 14th, 1871.—Dr. V. Clarence Price—DEAR SIR: I learn with pleasure that you contemplate offering your Blood Enricher as a specific outside of your practice. I have for some time thought you ought to do so, in justice to a suffering and oft times humbugged public, who cannot fail to appreciate as soon as they come to know its merits. I have taken this remedy myself, as have several members of my family, and with the best results in every case, restoring wasted energies, and regulating and building up the system when other remedies had failed to produce the desired results. You are at liberty to refer to me as endorsing your claims for this remedy.

Very truly, yours. T. L. TERRY,
Editor Courant, Berlin, Wis.

"TRUTH UNVAILING FALSEHOOD."—In all theories, speculations, and practical facts which occupy the attention and investigations of the mental faculties, there is always a true side and a false one. It matters not whether we treat of Philosophy, Religion, Politics, or the Arts and Sciences—the laws of Mechanism, Government, or Medicine—there is still a false as well as true principle with which to grapple. Quacks—and their name is legion—come forward with their glittering generalities and plausible theories with which to lead credulous persons into irretrievable error.

"But Truth, crushed to earth, will rise again—
The eternal years of God are here;
While Error, wounded, writhes in pain,
And dies amid her worshipers."

So has it ever been with those miserable imitators of Plantation Bitters. They and their vile life-destroying, poisonous compounds, have found that oblivion which a discriminating public will always finally award them, while Plantation Bitters still comforts and restores health to its millions upon millions of consumers, which are annually increasing.
nov21—deod1w&w1t

ARREST DECAY.—When a plant or a tree begins to decay it must needs die. It cannot be revitalized. But it is not so with human beings. A human ruin can be repaired, strengthened, restored, though a brown leaf or a withered blade of grass can never be made green again. In the autumn of life, or even in its winter, when nature seems to be giving way under the pressure of years, it is still possible to retard the progress of decay, and to lend to age more than its wonted vigor. As a means of promoting this object, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unquestionably the most potent of all restoratives. It will not make the old young, but it will prevent, lessen, or sooth the infirmities which are the usual accompaniments of the decline of life. For debility and a lack of nervous power, from whatever cause arising, it is the medicine that of all others before the world, best deserves the name of a specific. In purity, in invigorating properties, in its adaptation to weak stomachs and feeble organizations, it has no competitor among the tonics of the pharmacopœia, nor among proprietory remedies. Besides its strengthening principle, it possesses alterative and regulating properties of the highest order, and as an anti-bilious medicine is far preferable to any of the preparations containing mercury. Time has shown that for physical decay, nervous debility, dyspepsia, bilious disorders, and intermittent fever, Hostetter's Bitters is a remedy without a rival. This is the season of the fall of the leaf; let it remind the old, the feeble, the sickly, to invigorate and regulate their systems with this great vegetable tonic and alterative.

CHEROKEE PILLS NO. 2.
For the Removal of Obstructions and the Insurance of Regularity in the Recurrence of Monthly Periods.

THESE PILLS are an unfailing Female Regulator, intended for special cases; those obstinate ones where milder and cheaper medicines fail.

They are composed of the most active and powerful principles of plants, roots and berries, so highly concentrated that each pill contains more medical strength than a whole box or bottle of ordinary dollar medicine in the market. Although powerful, yet so mild and pleasant in their operation, that the most feeble can take them with perfect safety.

☞ They may be safely used at any age, and at any period, except during the First Three Months, during which the unfailing nature of their effects would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

☞ All letters seeking information or advice will be promptly, freely and discreetly answered.

☞ Sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of price, $5, per box.

☞ The Cherokee Pills No. 2 are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of this; those which they can purchase at a cheap price and make more money. As you value your health do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these $5 pills, and take no other. If the Druggist will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter and we will send them to you by mail, free of postage, securely sealed from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms, and write post office, county, State and name of writer, and enclose postage stamp for reply.

☞ We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet, entitled "MAN AND WOMAN AS INVALIDS," to every reader of this paper. Address as follows:
